ICSIA 2019 CSI Conference

Training, Education and Technology

Who: International Crime Scene Investigators Association

When: September 10, 11 and 12, 2019

Where: Northern Illinois University Conference Center, Naperville, Illinois USA

This forensic conference is open to ALL in Law Enforcement but is not open to the public. The conference is for Patrol Officers, Supervisors, Investigative or Detective Unit personnel and, of course, Crime Scene Investigators. Personnel from All aspects of Law Enforcement are Welcome to attend. The conference is geared to the examination, documentation and processing of crime scenes. We will do this through lectures, presentations and workshops. Forensic Vendors will be displaying and demonstrating their products. Presenters will be experts in their respective forensic fields. This is a conference that you will not want to miss!

Now is the time to plan on attending by budgeting for this 2019 conference.
